2. If you move from Finland to Estonia, your Estonian residential address will be forwarded to Finland and entered in the Finnish Population Register. This will end the validity of your Finnish residential address in the Finnish Population Register. If you are a Finnish citizen and later change your place of residence in Estonia, any new residential address will also be forwarded to Finland.

3. If you move from Estonia to Finland, your notice of place of residence will be reviewed after three months have passed since its submission and Finland has not forwarded your Finnish residential address to Estonia within that period. In this case, the local government will contact you and you must submit a document proving that your Finnish residential address has been entered in the Finnish Population Register.

Additional page to the notice of place of residence

- * If a person does not have an Estonian personal identification code, it will be created for him/her by the local government based on the data from his/her identity and citizenship document, and it is not necessary to submit this data on an additional page.
- * If necessary, the data from the identity and citizenship document may be entered on an additional page if the notice of place of residence is completed before submitting it to the local government or if it simplifies the submission of data for all persons whose residential address is being changed at once.
- * Please complete in block letters.
